BLIZZARD IN OKLAHOMA.

Omaha. April 9.-Freezing weather followed yesterday's rainstorm, with a fall in the temperature to-day of nearly twentyfive degrees. The cold wave extends over the entire State and Western Iowa. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Leavenworth, Kas., April 9.-The snow and wind storm of the last two days damaged fruit very little here. The temperature fell to 31 degrees this morning. The mixture of snow, rain and sleet last night kept the atmosphere damp, which saved fruit buds from freezing. Snow was still falling this morning. Winter wheat never looked better in the early part of April. NEAR FREEZING POINT.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Lawrence, Kas., April 9.-Fruit growers in this neighborhood believe that no dam age yet has been done the fruit, especially peaches, but there is fear from cold an peaches, but there is lear from cold and clearing weather to-night. The wind is still blowing briskly from the north, and the sky is overcast. The temperature is close to the freezing point. FIVE INCHES OF SNOW.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Junction City, Kas., April 9.—Nearly five inches of snow fell here yesterday and last night. It was by far the heaviest snowfall of the winter. The temperature this morning was down to 33 degrees. In some places the freeze was very destructive to peach buds. To-day it is warmer and nearly all of the snow has melted. It will be a great benefit to wheat.

STORM ABATING. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Reading, Kas., April 2.—The storm of yesterday is abating though the cold weather continued through the night. Considerable snow fell. It is believed the fruits are not damaged.

TWO CONVENTION DATES ARE SET

Congressional Goes to East St. Louis on July 16 and County to Belleville June 4.

The Democratic Congressional Committee of the Twenty-second District met in East St. Louis yesterday at the office of City Attorney Maurice V. Joyce and set the date for the Congressional Convention as July 16 at East St. Louis. The convention will be called to order at 10 a. m. Breese Glass of Edwardsville presided at the meeting and Maurice V. Joyce was secretary. Both spoke of the excellent chances for a general Democratic victory this year.

At Belleville the St. Clair County Democratic Central Committee decided on June as the date for holding the County Convention and the primaries were set for May 25. The convention will be held at

May 26. The convention will be held at Beileville.

The meeting was presided over by John Kickham of East St. Louis and Phillip Sopp of Belleville was secretary. The Belleville and country members of the committee passed a resolution fixing the basis of representation at the County Convention on the vote cast for Kern for Congress two vers are vention on the vote cast for Kern for Congress two years ago.

The East St. Louis members of the committee, headed by George C. Furdy, made a vehement protest against this, holding that the representation should be fixed on a percentage of votes cast at the last presidential election. Under the rule of yesterday Belleville will have almost as many delegates as East St. Louis, although there are about twice as many Democrats in East St. Louis as there are lin Belleville. Twenty-five delegates will be selected at the County Convention to attend the State Convention.

Gray was struck in the arm above the elbow by a broken cold chisel.
The instrument passed through an ar-The instrument passed through an artery.

When several of his fellow-workmen reached him he was almost exhausted from loss of blood. They improvised a tourniquet out of a pair of suspenders and then had him removed to Belleville, where Doctor Rayhill dressed his injuries. He was then assisted to his home.

Doctor Rayhill says that Gray will be all right in a few days.

RUNAWAY BOYS ARRESTED.

Keefner and Aguew Say They Came From South Africa to See Fair. George Keefner, 14, and Theodore Ag-new, 15, runaway boys, were arrested by Policeman Thoene at the Relay Station, East St. Louis, yesterday afternoon. The boys told the police several stories as to their homes, the first to the effect that they had been to South Africa and were now bound for St. Louis, where they intended seeing the World's Fair, after which they said they intended going to the coast and stow away to Japan.
